Description

19th Century Mahogany Chest of Drawers.
Charming small mahogany and light mahogany veneer chest of drawers, veneered on oak, dating from the first half of the 19th century. It features three drawers opening from the front, each with its original lock and working keys. The drawers, uprights, and rails are dovetailed, ensuring quality construction. The uprights are straight and terminate in straight feet with a slight projection, each adorned with a small brass fitting. The front right foot has undergone minor restoration. The oak backs are original. It retains its beautiful original marble top, a very fine molded Aleppo breccia. The light mahogany has a lovely waxed patina. The drawers offer ample storage. This small chest of drawers is ideal for a space between two windows or doors, such as an
