Description

A pair of Persian Oriental rugs from Iran: Kashan, 0.70 x 1.35 meters. Hand-knotted Oriental rugs from the renowned city of Kashan, one of the most prestigious centers of Persian weaving. Renowned for centuries for their technical excellence and rich designs, Kashan rugs are among the most sought-after by enthusiasts and collectors. This particular rug features a red field with warm hues. The richly decorated borders, adorned with stylized scrolls and flowers, frame the design with great harmony, demonstrating remarkable precision in the workshop. Knotted with fine, high-quality wool on a cotton warp, this rug offers exceptional density and durability. Its subtle color palette, combining reds, blues, and touches of ivory, reveals all the elegance of Persian productions
