Description

Frans Francken II (Antwerp 1581-1642) The Presentation of the Rosary to Saint Dominic. Oil on copper plate. Signed lower center: "Frans Francken pinx." and dated 1616 on the pedestal lower right. Before a richly ornamented altar, the Virgin appears to the kneeling Saint Dominic, accompanied by the Infant Jesus, who presents him with a rosary, a symbol of Marian graces and the saint's spiritual mission in spreading Dominican prayer. The refinement of the details--liturgical objects, embroidered cloths, and devotional accessories--testifies to the Antwerp painter's technical mastery. A major figure in Flemish painting during the Counter-Reformation, Frans Francken II is distinguished by his luminous compositions, the delicacy of his flesh tones, and the precision of
