Description

Introducing a beauty of French craftsmanship. Behold of this exceptional and rare marble; Brèche de Sanguine, this striking Louis XVI marble fireplace is a true masterpiece of design and art. The break-fronted, moulded shelf rests above a beautiful, crispy-carved frieze, flanked by Acanthus paterae end-blocks, which in turn rests above Acanthus, console jambs. A testament to its timeless beauty. If you are searching for an Louis XVI fireplace, you will see that almost all the Louis XVI fireplaces are made out of a Carrara marble. Just a few are made out of another marble. This Brèche de Sanguine is one of his own, not seen before. A Louis XVI fireplace fits also well with most modern room-designs. We stock fireplace tiles in all styles: Louis XIV, XV, XVI, Art Deco,
