Description

A beautiful red percale album containing 125 photographs taken between 1899 and 1900, primarily of infantry, cavalry, and artillery. The maneuvers took place in southwestern France, specifically in Lot-et-Garonne, Casseneuil, Villereal, etc. Each photograph is annotated in red ink, dated, and, for the most part, located. A fine collection; the vast majority of the photographs are in good condition, though a few have faded slightly. The album measures approximately 22 cm by 16 cm. Provenance: formerly in the collection of the Gauban Aspit family of Saint-Amand, one of whose ancestors fought alongside Lafayette during the American Revolutionary War. Additional photographs are available upon request. Free shipping within France and the European Union.
