Description

A decorative and elegant pair of Renaissance armored standard bearers, proudly perched on pedestals of various marbles assembled in soft pastel colors. These charming "curiosity" pieces are a stylish and beautiful decoration in the spirit of bygone days of chivalry. Born in the 19th century, these handsome figures, with their elegant pose--one hand on their hip and the other holding the standard--possess undeniable decorative appeal, thanks to the subject matter, the quality of the fine and detailed bronzes, and the refined and elegant base. Beautifully crafted, these mid-19th-century pieces have everything to charm and create a beautiful display that evokes the taste and nostalgia of bygone eras when bravery was a virtue.
