Description

Bouillotte lamp, partly dating from the 18th century. Originally, it was likely a large hand-held candlestick, which was converted into a bouillotte lamp in the 19th century. The base is silvered bronze with Regency decoration featuring mascarons and a shell. The lampshade is made of painted sheet metal. The electrical system has been renovated. The original silvering is worn in places. 18th and 19th century. Shipping: EUR18 in France, EUR35 in the EU, and EUR150 for the rest of the world.
