Description

A Louis XVI style drop-front secretary desk, crafted from richly inlaid precious wood, featuring a refined decoration of rosettes, scrolls, and floral motifs in light wood against a darker background. The drop-front, adorned with high-quality central marquetry, opens to reveal a discreet workspace or storage area, making this piece both functional and decorative. The finely crafted fronts, geometric frames, and tapered legs emphasize the elegance of the Louis XVI style. The bronze escutcheons and knobs add a further touch of nobility and harmonize with the overall design.
