Description

Saca Castelli, Italy, early 20th century: Large glazed earthenware cachepot or planter, richly hand-decorated with a pastoral scene featuring dogs in a hilly landscape of deep blue, green, and ochre. The piece has a generous shape, accentuated by two elegant side handles, and a finely painted decoration typical of high-quality Italian or Mediterranean craftsmanship. The ornamental friezes and yellow highlights add depth and elegance to the whole. A decorative object of character, ideal for a plant, a floral arrangement, or as a centerpiece for interior design. Specifications: Type: cachepot/planter Material: glazed earthenware Decoration: hand-painted animal scene (dogs) Dominant colors: blue, white, green, yellow Decorative side handles Condition: very good overall condition.
