Description

Signature: J. Garnier Dimensions: Planter: Height
