Description

Large Louis Philippe period mirror in carved and gilded wood, rectangular in shape with rounded corners. The frame is richly molded, with an interior beaded frieze and wide, finely crafted moldings, typical of 19th-century French production. The mirror has an original silvering, with slight pitting and signs of age, which give it an authentic and sought-after charm. The original gilding has a beautiful warm patina, ideal for a classic or Haussmannian interior, or for adding character to a contemporary decor. It can be placed on the floor or hung horizontally or vertically depending on the desired use (entrance hall, living room, bedroom, above a fireplace or console table). Specifications: Period: 19th century; Material: carved wood, gilded wood; Style: classic/Louis-Philippe; Glass: antique, with
