

Engraved Ivory Plaque, From A Cabinet, 17th Century. The Return Of The Prodigal Son.

340 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ivory

Length : 12 cms

Height : 7 cms

Description

Engraved ivory plaque, likely from a cabinet drawer, Italy or Flanders. The scene depicts the baptism of a Young boy who is kneeling before the priest with outstretched arms. Other figures surround him, observing the scene. The plaque has a few cracks, but nothing is missing. The scene is engraved in dark brown/black. The plaque is apt on a smoked plexiglass base, dating from the 1980s.

Dealer

La Curieuse

Dessins anciens, curiosités, mobilier haute époque

Mobile : 0680646110

99 rue des rosiers Saint Ouen

Paris 75004