Description

This beautifully sized and well-preserved 18th-century head of Christ, with its expressive eyes, possesses all the charm and poetry of the mid-reign of Louis XVI. Elegantly sculpted, this unique head of Christ retains its original polychromy, painted in soft and delicate tones. Its height of 20.5 cm makes it a striking and highly decorative piece. A fine addition to a cabinet of curiosities, it would also provide a spiritual presence for a believer in adoration of this symbol of elevation and love. This lovely piece is in excellent, untouched condition and free from parasites.
