Description

Singing Bird Box - probably French, mid-20th century. Charming singing bird box, probably of French origin, dating from the mid-20th century. The box is richly decorated and gilded, offering an elegant and decorative presentation. Upon opening, the bird appears and sings a melody as expected, attesting to the proper functioning of the sound mechanism. The bird's movements could use some servicing, a common issue for this type of mechanical object. A beautiful collector's item, sought after for its decorative charm and mechanical aspect, ideal for enthusiasts of singing bird boxes and mechanical curiosities. <https://youtu.be/jBNCc4R9Za8>
