Description

Important Art Deco decorative pressed-molded glass bowl, made by Walther & Söhne in Germany, circa 1930. The design features two stylized female figures, kneeling and holding hands, supporting a wide-flared, corolla-shaped bowl. The piece is made of amber-pink tinted glass, with a refined contrast between the satin-finished figures and the glossy bowl, characteristic of Walther's production from the late 1920s to early 1930s. Walther & Söhne is known for its figurative pressed glass creations, often unsigned. Height: 20 cm Width: 29 cm Depth: 20 cm Very good overall condition, without chips or cracks (minimal wear consistent with age).
