Balance Beam Of A Locksmith In Love, Directoire Or First Empire

180 EUR

Signature : Art Populaire
Period : 18th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Wrought iron
Length : 68cm
Height : 45cm

Description

A sturdy suspended balance beam (I don't have pans), good size, made from thick wrought iron, dating from late 18th century. Dimensions: 68cm x 45cm. Weight: 2.8kg. The remarkable feature of this otherwise utilitarian balance is the central pointer, which is replaced here by a pointed obelisk, made from openwork wrought iron, measuring 20cm x 5.5cm. At its base is a locksmith's sign with two crossed keys surmounted by one heart, and then the lozenges so characteristic of the Directoire-First Empire period. A beautiful object. Buy it now, payable by credit card or PayPal. - eclectic - We are not experts, but have been in this business for over 50 years. No-hassle refund if you are not satisfied. Siret: FR 24.430113233.
