Description

Beautiful rectangular oil on cardboard depicting a shepherd and his flock of sheep in a moorland landscape, with rivers and hills in the background. The oil is signed by Georges William Holor, a 19th-century British painter who exhibited frequently at the Royal Academy and the British Institution in London from 1848 to 1890. Known for the quality of his colors and nuances, and his lovely renderings, this "lovely" painting is presented in fine condition, with very beautiful color nuances, particularly in the heather of the moor and the sky. It is presented in a giltwood frame measuring 67 x 29 cm.
