Description

Oil on canvas by the Belgian artist Lucienne Bosquet, depicting an authentic harbor scene: fishermen working on their nets. A graduate of the Academy of Fine Arts in Mons, Lucienne Bosquet is an internationally renowned artist. Her work is distinguished by an exceptional mastery of the palette knife technique, giving the canvas a generous relief and vibrant texture. This particularly luminous painting exudes a warm atmosphere thanks to a rich and perfectly balanced color palette. Her works sensitively capture the daily life and landscapes of Belgium and France. Awarded First Prize for Excellence in 1933 with highest distinction, a large vermeil medal, a gift from the government. Very good condition. Signed lower right, Lucienne Bosquet. Oil dimensions: 50 x 60 cm. Frame dimensions:
