Description

Elegant console table in solid blond walnut, Restoration period, 19th century. It rests on a curved, lyre-shaped base connected by a turned lower stretcher. The front opens with two drawers fitted with round, patinated bronze knobs. The top features a rim forming a small storage compartment, characteristic of early 19th-century utilitarian consoles. Beautiful antique patina, with a well-defined walnut grain. A decorative and functional piece, ideal for an entryway, living room, or office. Very good overall condition, with wear and minor marks consistent with age; no major restoration. Delivery within mainland France: EUR100. Contact us for more information.
