Description

A high-fashion necklace attributed to the House of Christian Dior, dated 1962 according to the marking on the clasp. It is composed of striated (cog-shaped) spherical beads in alternating gold and silver tones, arranged in a gradient, separated by small smooth beads. The overall design is characteristic of Dior creations from the early 1960s, marked by strong volumes and an elegant, structured aesthetic. The clasp features an oval plaque engraved: "MADE IN GERMANY for Christian Dior © 62".
