Description

Asia, 20th Century: Baluster-shaped porcelain vase, richly decorated in a blue and red palette with gold highlights, typical of the Imari style. The body features a refined figurative scene depicting a woman and children in a floral setting, executed with great finesse. The neck is adorned with floral and vegetal motifs, while the side handles in the form of stylized dragons add a remarkable sculptural and decorative character. The piece is completed by a carved wooden base, perfectly suited to the vase. Period: Early 20th century. Origin: Asia. Material: Glazed porcelain. Decoration: Figurative scenes, flowers, scrolls, gilding. Base: Carved wood (included). Condition: Very good overall condition. Gilding well preserved. No cracks or chips. 118 x 54 cm
