Description

Magnificent Louis XV period Lyonnaise commode in solid walnut. The front features three richly molded and carved superimposed drawers, their ends adorned with stylized shells, and their centers with flowers and foliage. The wooden top is embellished with a corbel molding. The commode, with its curved front, is adorned with magnificent original handles and keyhole escutcheons in finely chased bronze, surmounted by a royal crown with fleurs-de-lis, the symbol of the Kingdom of France. The sides are double-paneled. The front legs are cabriole. Note the very old repairs to the two rear legs, as well as a reinforcement (see photos). The piece is sold without a key. Dimensions: Height: 100 cm, Length: 134 cm, Depth: 65 cm. For shipping costs by carrier, please contact us.
