Description

Superb 19th-century Louis XV style writing desk in rosewood and walnut veneer. This good-quality desk has an unusual length of 1.32 meters, the ideal size for a workspace without being too large. It features a double-sided decoration, a molded bronze top, and a veneered edge. The desk is decorated with fine , good-quality bronze mounts. The desk is topped with a leahter. It has three drawers without crossbars and cabriole legs ending in bronze sabots. The drawers have their working keys. It has been hand polished in our workshops and has a superb patina. In magnificent condition restorations of age and use. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. Viewable in our 2500m² showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium.
