Description

Magnificent Collection of Maps, Plans, Views, and Medals of Ancient Greece in one quarto volume, half-bound with reinforced corners, smooth spine with raised bands in gilt, blue boards, tinted calfskin. Published in Paris by Bossange, Masson, and Besson, 1807. This lovely atlas, often in short supply, dates from the First Empire period: "Collection of Geographical Maps," Plans, Views, and Medals, Relating to the "Voyage of Young Anacharsis," preceded by a Critical Analysis of the (folding) Maps. Fresh and beautiful engraved plates, a valuable tool that happily accompanies Barthélémy's famous educational journey...
