Description

An elegant Louis XVI style flat desk, dating from the 20th century, crafted from carved wood and resting on four fluted legs. The apron is finely decorated with carved floral motifs and decorative reserves, typical of the Louis XVI aesthetic. The top is covered in green leather with a gilt border, lending a classic and functional touch to the piece. This desk is distinguished by its beautiful proportions and elegant lines, ideal for an office, library, or refined interior. It is in very good overall condition, with a warm patina and slight signs of age, consistent with the piece's age. Dimensions: Height: 74 cm Width: 140 cm Depth: 78 cm
