Description

A rare and remarkable antique fabric from Laos, attributed to the hill tribes of this region of Southeast Asia. This textile is made of hand-spun and hand-woven cotton, a testament to ancestral know-how passed down through generations. The richly graphic design consists of finely arranged symbolic geometric motifs, offering an elegant contrast between the deep black and the natural ecru background. The overall effect is a strong decorative presence and a rare authenticity. This antique fabric can be used as a wall hanging, bedspread, sofa throw, or as the basis for an exceptional decorative or textile project. Beautifully woven, this antique textile is full of character and history. Dimensions: 187 cm x 94 cm ref 301225
