Description

A very charming antique sculpture depicting a woman lacing up her sandals. Signed Pugi on the base. Attributed to Guglielmo Pugi (1850-1915), a sculptor of that era, generally representing male and female figures from mythology. It is in good, original condition, despite a repair under the base, a very slight chip on one toe, and a small rust stain, which can be removed with acid. Please see the photos, which also serve as a description, and I can send you more if needed. Dimensions: 44 cm high, 28.5 cm long at the base, and 18.3 cm wide. Collection in person or worldwide viewing possible, in very good packaging.
