Description

The technique used in this watercolor is good. The overall condition is good. François-Martin Salvat (1892-1974) was a French artist, working as a painter, engraver, and illustrator. He produced numerous watercolors, landscapes inspired by his travels in Greece and Italy. His watercolors brilliantly showcase his use of line and foreshortening. This aspect of his work is undoubtedly the most original. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the artwork. For condition details, please examine the photos carefully.
