Description

An elegant Globe Wernicke London mahogany bookcase from late 19th/early 20th century from England composed of three sections and a drawer in its base. This bookcase stands out by its exceptionally large sections, which are unusual and allow for the placement of A4 binders in all three sections. The bottom section can even accommodate larger books or objects.

Furthermore, it features a drawer in its base, which is a not common. Due to this, This bookcase is extremely rare. It features a molded base and top and three glassed sections. The windows slide inside the bookcase It can be used as a bookcase or display cabinet in perfect condition and very beautiful patina. The bookcases match perfectly into an old or contemporary interior. Delivery available in Belgium, France,
