Description

Cabinet of Curiosities Spirit - Late 19th Century Inspiration. This four-light cage chandelier, crafted from black patinated brass, embodies the aesthetic of cabinets of curiosities and the erudite interiors of the late 19th century, where natural objects and decorative creations interacted freely. The openwork frame, with its elegant and dynamic curves, is adorned with a particularly abundant array of carefully selected and arranged natural shell pendants, interspersed with translucent glass elements and bluish beads evoking the marine world. The turquoise opaline candle holders recall decorative productions from the second half of the 19th century and add a refined chromatic touch, enhancing the light. Designed as much as a statement piece as a functional light fixture, this chandelier offers a
