Description

Elegant and timeless, this solid walnut column embodies the decorative and sculptural refinement of the Louis XVI style. Standing tall, it is distinguished by its harmonious fluted shaft, resting on a molded square base and topped with a square pedestal, ideal for displaying a bust, a cup, or a work of art. The walnut boasts a warm, deep patina with brown hues, revealing the wood's noble grain. The finish testifies to exacting craftsmanship, where every detail--from the regular fluting to the balanced proportions--reflects the classical taste inherited from ancient architecture. This piece, both decorative and functional, integrates elegantly into a classic, eclectic, or contemporary interior, adding a touch of verticality and distinction. It can be used as a display stand in a living room,
