Description

Majestic and theatrical, this torchère depicts a Nubian standing on a scrolled base, holding aloft a nine-light candelabra in the style of 18th-century Venetian candelabra. Entirely sculpted, it is enhanced with refined polychromy blending silver hues, gilding, and ochre accents, evoking the Baroque splendor of lagoon palaces. The figure, dressed in a stylized costume with dynamic folds and finely chiseled details, embodies the exotic aesthetic prized in the aristocratic decor of the Age of Enlightenment. The candelabra houses nine bulbs, providing a spectacular display while retaining the spirit of ceremonial torchères. This sculptural light fixture combines function and ornament, making it a striking centerpiece in both classic and eclectic interiors. Ideal for adding a theatrical touch to a
