Description

Academic study of a male nude seen in three-quarter view. The figure is depicted in an artist's studio or a painting school, lit from above. Jean-Louis Gayral was a French painter born in 1872. He exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français, where he was awarded a silver medal in 1932. He is known primarily as a painter of landscapes and artists' interiors, and he also painted studio scenes and academic figure studies (Benezit). Oil on canvas, signed and dated 19 June 1925, laid down on a rigid cardboard support. Presented in an old ebonised wooden frame. Very good overall condition. Dimensions including the frame: 64 × 33 cm.
