Description

I present here a beautiful carved wooden mirror with an openwork pediment and palmette frame, gilded with gold leaf, in perfect condition, in the late 18th-century Louis XVI style. The bold and beautiful gilding highlights a large mirror with elegant carving, its large and beautiful pediment, its perfect silvering, and its frame with a molded palmette frieze; the background is parqueted, and this well-preserved mirror dates from the 19th century, in keeping with the fine productions of the reign of Louis XVI. A quality and highly decorative piece, very much in the spirit of the Age of Enlightenment, it will brighten your wall with its beautiful decorative presence.
