Description

Description of the work: Marie Louise Ogier (1912-2003) France Young Woman in a Dreamlike Landscape Circa 1970 Oil on canvas Dimensions: 41 × 33 cm Signed lower left This portrait depicts a young woman with a direct and pensive gaze, placed before a landscape rendered in a synthetic and almost dreamlike manner. The face, composed with gentleness and restraint, stands out against a background of muted tones, blending greens, ochres, and grayish blues. The expression, both calm and introspective, lends the figure a silent and profoundly human presence. The brushstrokes are measured, slightly velvety, revealing a deliberate painting style, attentive to tonal transitions rather than marked contrasts. The deliberately simplified landscape acts as an emotional projection rather than a realistic depiction, reinforcing the inner dimension of the portrait. Condition: Good overall condition.

Minor, scattered wear is present, without affecting the legibility or the overall pictorial quality. Presentation: Artwork sold unframed. In conclusion, this oil on canvas is a balanced and elegant work, representative of the sensitive figurative style of the 1970s. Its size, timeless subject matter, and introspective atmosphere make it a particularly attractive piece for lovers of portraits and modern figurative painting.
