Description

A very elegant pair of Art Nouveau chairs crafted with intricately carved and openwork floral motifs in the style of Majorelle. The openwork backs are adorned with sculpted floral designs featuring sinuous, organic lines, characteristic of this nature-inspired artistic movement. The cabriole legs and gently curved seats enhance the overall harmony. The caned seats provide visual lightness, comfort, and authenticity. The beautiful patina of the wood, acquired over time, underscores the charm and history of these chairs. These chairs will find their place naturally in an elegant interior, whether classic, Art Nouveau, or eclectic, around a games table or as decorative accent chairs. Good overall condition, with signs of wear consistent with age. A rare and refined pair of chairs, ideal for lovers of antique furniture
