Description

A striking mid-century rectangular mirror adorned with oversized fragments of turquoise rock crystal, Italy, 1960s, made by Creaciones Gobesso. The stones, which appear raw and untreated, are set in a patinated resin frame with a bold and rugged character. They appear solid and have different shapes, but all share the same intense turquoise color. The stucco is ribbed and patinated in gold and black. Brutalist design with a touch of glamour. Made by Creaciones Gobesso based on designs by the iconoclastic artist Line Vautrin, whose creations were characterized by bolder designs. Mirror dimensions: 17 cm x 23.5 cm
