Description

This pair of oil lamps testifies to the expertise and refinement of the Parisian firm

Numberger-Lemonon, renowned for its luxury lighting creations during the 19th century. These oil lamps are a true ode to elegance. They are composed of a crackled ceramic stem, providing undeniable texture and charm. Brass and bronze complete the ensemble, offering touches of brilliance and sophistication. The meticulous details reflect Numberger-Lemonon's attention to detail. The design of these oil lamps is typical of the period, with classic and elegant forms. Each lamp rests on a bronze base with a brown patina, adorned with chimera heads. They will bring a touch of charm and authenticity to your interior, whether it is antique or more contemporary in style. These lamps can be placed in a living room,
