Description

This magnificent regional oak sideboard is an elegant and functional piece of furniture that will bring a touch of rustic charm to your home. With its curved and undulating front, this sideboard boasts a refined finish with carved details and gilt bronze handles, adding a touch of sophistication to its traditional appearance. It offers ample storage space thanks to its two molded side doors, four drawers, and a large central door carved with a grotesque motif. Each door is mounted on iron hinges and fitted with a working lock, a handsome bronze keyhole, and a key. The rounded uprights are straight and fluted. This sideboard is appreciated for its ample storage capacity and authentic character.*****Period: Mid-19th century. Excellent condition after restoration in our workshop. Waxed finish.
