3 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 11

Height : 42

Description

A pair of late 19th-century French ewers, crafted in the Neoclassical style, with high-relief decoration depicting draped female figures in the antique style. The sculpted handles and gadrooned bases recall the Empire aesthetic, inspired by classical antiquity. The craftsmanship is meticulous, typical of French decorative production of this period. Made of silver-plated silver, using a traditional technique, with approximately 10% of the weight being solid silver.
