Description

This painted wooden trumeau mirror is a beautiful decorative object, composed of a painting on wood depicting a romantic scene in the upper section and a mirror in the lower section. Each frame is topped with a Louis XV shell motif and surrounded by molded trim. The painting depicts a couple in period costumes seated by a river. The elegant young woman holds a fishing rod, and the young man plays the flute. This bucolic and soothing image perfectly illustrates the Louis XV style. This mirror will add a touch of prestige to your interior.
