Description

Featuring five mercury glass panes, this painted repoussé brass mirror is a true decorative piece, blending finesse and sophistication. Its meticulously crafted frame is distinguished by a rich decoration of scrolls and foliage, evoking the elegance of the Baroque and Rococo styles. Sculpted shells, a classic symbol of refinement, complete this harmonious composition, while the beaded friezes add a touch of symmetry and delicacy. With a warm and timeless glow, this mirror is much more than a simple functional object: it reflects remarkable craftsmanship and integrates perfectly into an elegant decor. Its charm and finesse make it a choice decorative piece to enhance an interior with nobility and distinction.Period: 1900 Excellent condition Shipping available in France and
