395 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Alloy

Height : 21cm

Description

An elegant metal nightlight depicting a seated Columbine, delicately placed on a spherical globe of crackled frosted glass, diffusing a soft and warm light. The piece rests on a hexagonal metal base with a rich geometric Art Deco design, characteristic of the decorative vocabulary of this period. The finely detailed sculpture represents Columbine in a graceful pose, wearing her bonnet and traditional costume, emblematic of the theatrical world revisited in the Art Deco aesthetic. The lamp has been rewired to current standards and fitted with an LED bulb, allowing for safe, contemporary use while respecting the original spirit. Specifications: Period: Art Deco (circa 1925-1935) Material: Patinated metal, crackled frosted glass globe Decoration: Columbine, hexagonal base with Art Deco
