Description

Superb French Louis XV Painted Display Cabinet - Rococo Style - Circa 1900. This very elegant French Louis XV style display cabinet, dating from around 1900, is crafted in the pure spirit of the Rococo. This refined piece is distinguished by its rich and delicate original paintwork, as well as its fine wood carving, demonstrating high-quality craftsmanship. The cabinet features graceful and harmonious lines, typical of the Louis XV style. The painted decoration is particularly well-executed and well-preserved. The wood, the structure, and the entire piece are in very good condition. This decorative and authentic piece is ideal for showcasing works of art, porcelain, or glassware. It will find its perfect place in a classic or elegant interior, but can also create a refined contrast in a more contemporary setting. Period:
