Description

A rare and charming find, this pretty box with a sliding lid from the Queyras region, carved from fir with rosettes and a grid pattern, opens to reveal six compartments. A quintessential piece of folk art, transformed into a mountain "curiosity," it holds the carefully arranged collection of a lover of walks and discoveries; a moving testament to a young person's quest for nature-related experiences. This box, in good condition, is a living testament to an awakening to the mineral world within the immensity of this fascinating landscape: the Queyras, a waking dream.
