

---

Florane (attributed To) - At The Military Brothel - Gouache On Paper - Circa 1930

320 EUR

Signature : Florane

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Length : 22cm

Width : 47cm

Description

Florane (Louis Marie Émile Blanchard, known as) (1871-1939) At the Military Brothel Gouache on paper, Image size 22cm x 47cm Framed 31cm x 56cm Signed lower right, circa 1930 Good condition, under glass Shipping to mainland France EUR30 This gouache bears, in the place of the signature, the name of Gil Blas, the name of the illustrated newspaper for which this subject was intended and which was published from 1879 to 1940. We attribute this drawing to Louis Marie Emile Blanchard, known as Florane, a painter and illustrator from Toulouse, contributor to numerous publications (including Gil Blas), a lover of cabarets and other bistros which he depicted many times and whose characteristic style is recognizable here.

Dealer

3ème Acte

Céramiques, tableaux, objets d'architecture

Mobile : 06 65 26 08 44

Gauriac 33710