Description

Antique Louis XV style mirror, richly carved with scrolling foliage, shells, and other foliage, typical of the Rococo style. The finely carved wooden frame features subtly patinated antique gilding, offering an elegant contrast between the gilded and darker areas. The composition is centered around an oval mirror, surrounded by a beaded molding and surmounted by a prominent shell motif, emblematic of the Louis XV style. The asymmetrical scrolls, acanthus leaves, and rich decoration attest to high-quality craftsmanship, making it ideal for classic décor, a period home, or a contemporary interior seeking a statement piece. Period: 20th century Style: Louis XV / Rococo Materials: carved and gilded wood Shape: oval Orientation: vertical Condition: Good overall condition. Mirror in good condition. H112
