

Perfume Bottle, Silver And Crystal, 19th Century

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 8

Description

A French solid silver perfume bottle, shaped like a cornucopia, bearing the eagle hallmark, attesting to a silver content of 950/1000. The body of the bottle is made of cut crystal. The mounts, stopper, and closure elements are of finely worked silver. A silver safety chain, connecting the different parts, completes the ensemble, characteristic of high-quality perfume bottles from the late 19th century. This bottle is in very good condition and of exquisite craftsmanship.
