Description

A coffee table set comprising a square central table and four nesting side tables, attributed to Maison Charles, France, circa 1970. The frame is made of chromed steel and brass, with clear glass tops. The four nesting tables can be placed under the main table or used separately. Good overall condition. Some oxidation is present on the gilding of the lower sections. Two tiny chips are visible on two of the glass tops, located on the inside and shown in the photographs. Each nesting table measures 50 x 50 cm and is 38 cm high; the table measures 105 x 43 x 105 cm.
