Description

Portrait of a gentleman in armor. Oil on canvas, 18th century. French School, early 18th century. This handsome officer, with his regular features and penetrating gaze, displays a proud bearing. His simply decorated armor and fine lace ruff are the mark of this gentleman's aristocratic lineage. The message case adds a further touch of refinement to this ensemble. This portrait is presented in a superb 18th-century carved giltwood frame decorated with floral corner motifs and fleur-de-lis.
